

Barn name: Boo

Registered name: R Convincing Skip

Particulars: 21 yr old chestnut Registered Paint Gelding. Owned by Betsy Vogt, Galena, MD, and boarded at Granite Springs Stables, Warwick, MD. Bought sight unseen on the recommendation of Bryan Bradley.

The ride: Boo is a great draw for western. Just sit there and let him do his job. Carry a crop and he is a good hunt seat draw. Super comfortable and uncomplicated. Anyone can ride him from beginners to experienced. Great lesson horse for every level and age.

Divisions: 1-5, 11-18. Flat, fences, rail, and reining

IHSA Career: Regular season HS & Western
HS & Western Regionals
HS Zones
Western Zones
Semi-Finals
Nationals-Western
Alumni Tournament of Champions
Zone 3 Battle in the Saddle Tournament
IEA HS regular season
Z3R2 Western Horse of the Year--2X
Z4R4 All Around Horse of the Year
Z3R5 All Around Horse of the Year--2X

His Other Career: Many year end awards in western pleasure, lesson horse, English pleasure. Grand Champions/Reserve Champions in western pleasure, English pleasure, halter. Riders have earned many champions/reserves on Boo in western horsemanship, HS equitation, Leadline, short stirrup, beginner horsemanship, beginner equitation, etc.

His youngest rider to ride him completely by himself was 3 yrs old. He did walk trot. He is a barn and IHSA favorite!